

Annual Section Awards Presented at Convention in Hollywood, Fla.

By Tae Kelley Bronner, Esq., Tae Kelley Bronner, P.L., Tampa, FL and
J. Richard Caskey, Esq., Steven L. Hearn, P.A., Tampa, FL

The RPPTL Section is able to accomplish its numerous goals and functions as one of the most successful (and largest) sections of The Florida Bar due to the dedicated work of its members. On May 25, 2007, at the Section's Annual Convention in Hollywood this year, Rohan Kelley, outgoing Section Chair, announced three awards to honor Section Members.

J. Craig Shaw received the Robert C. Scott Memorial Award for his devoted and valuable service to the Section. This award was established in 1985 in memory of Bob Scott, who was the past chair of the Section. The award is presented to Section members who best exemplify Bob's devotion and continued service to the Section and its membership. Craig, an attorney, has served as a member of The Florida Bar's Continuing Legal Education Publication Staff for 29 years and is currently the Associate Director. It is his diligent and effective work that has maintained the high quality of the Bar's publications in the estates and trusts area. He has also served as Bar staff liaison to the Probate Rules Committee for many years. His tireless work as editor of the Section publications and his faithful participation at the Probate Rules Committee meetings have advanced the objectives of the Section and provided invaluable service to the Bar and its members. Craig joins the very distinguished group of prior recipients of this award, which includes last year's recipient, J. Michael Swaine.

J. Craig Shaw receiving the Robert C. Scott Award.

S. Dresden Brunner received the Section's Annual Service Award for her significant efforts on behalf of the Section. The Section presents an Annual Service Award to a Section member who has rendered dedicated and significantly outstanding service to the Section and its varied programs throughout the current year. In selecting the recipient of this annual award, the Section considers both the character and magnitude of the service furnished by the nominee throughout the year and particular emphasis is given to the benefits which accrue to the Section and the lawyers of Florida as a result of such service. Dresden's dedication and commitment to the Section are well known, as she has served as Chair and Editor of ActionLine for many years. Her tireless efforts from one publication to the next are greatly responsible for the outstanding quality that has made ActionLine the comprehensive and professional magazine that enables the leadership and committees of the Section to communicate with over 10,000 members.

S. Dresden Brunner (center) receives the Service Award and roses.

Fletcher Belcher (center) receiving the William Belcher Lifetime Award and his wife, Gayla Belcher, is recognized.